

Criminal Justice Criminal Research Project & Presentation

Student Name: _____ Presentation Topic: _____ Date: _____

Content	Presentation	PowerPoint	Time Management
5: In-depth and thorough discussion of the assigned topic. Shows strong evidence of research. Information and visuals are appropriate for class setting.	5: Presenter speaks clearly, does not read from slide, and shows enthusiasm and preparation.	5: PowerPoint includes a good balance of images and text. Information is clear and organized, and the design of the PowerPoint demonstrates considerable effort.	5: Presentation is a minimum of 5 minutes but no longer than 7 minutes. Time is given to classmates for questions.
4: All parts of the assignment are covered with some depth. Shows strong evidence of research. Information and visuals are appropriate for class setting.	4: Presenter speaks clearly, does not read from slide, and shows preparation.	4: PowerPoint includes a good balance of images and text. Information is clear and organized. Design of PowerPoint shows effort.	4: Presentation is a minimum of 5 minutes but no longer than 7 minutes. Limited time is given for questions from classmates.
3: All parts of the assignment are covered but with little depth. Shows some evidence of research. Information and visuals are appropriate for class setting; some minor inaccuracies in information.	3: Presenter speaks clearly but mostly reads from the slides. Shows some evidence of preparation.	3: PowerPoint includes mostly text and some images. Some points of the presentation are unclear. Design of PowerPoint shows minimal effort.	3: Presentation is slightly shorter than 5 minutes or longer than 7 minutes. No time is given for questions from classmates.
2: Some parts of the assignment are not covered. Shows little evidence of research. Some information or visuals may be considered inappropriate according to the presentation guidelines. Information shows inaccuracies.	2: Presenter does not speak clearly or make eye contact with the audience. Mostly reads directly from the slides, and shows little evidence of preparation.	2: PowerPoint shows minimal effort; no images and long, unclear sections of text.	2: Presentation is significantly shorter than 5 minutes or longer than 7 minutes. No time is given for questions from classmates.
1: Very few parts of the assignment are covered. Shows little to no evidence of research. Includes inappropriate information or visuals. Information shows many inaccuracies.	1: Group member did not present.	1: No PowerPoint is utilized, or the PowerPoint design shows very little effort.	1: Presentation is shorter than 2 minutes.

Grade: _____/100